

Group Life Insurance Benefit At-A-Glance

Group Life Insurance is a benefit provided and paid for by your employer. The amount of group life coverage you receive depends on the specifics of your employer's contract with Church Life Insurance Corporation (Church Life).

Why Group Life Insurance?

In the event of an employee's early death, Group Life Insurance gives beneficiaries additional financial protection and eases their financial burden. For some, the life insurance benefit can be used to address funeral expenses and provide some financial resources for other final expenses.

How is the benefit amount calculated?

The amount of coverage provided and whether there is retiree coverage depends on the specifics of your employer's contract with Church Life.

What other benefits come with Group Life Insurance?

- Conversion Privilege
- Portability Option
- Continuation of Benefit on Total Disability (Disability Waiver)—for active employees under the age of 60
- Early Payment of Death Benefit (Accelerated Benefit or Living Benefit)
- Accidental Death & Dismemberment—a benefit for Active employees under the age of 70 that your employer may offer voluntarily

Can this benefit be lost?

Yes. Coverage will be lost upon a separation of employment between you and your employer, or if your employer chooses to discontinue coverage.
